7N-8D Self Drive Expedition

December Month

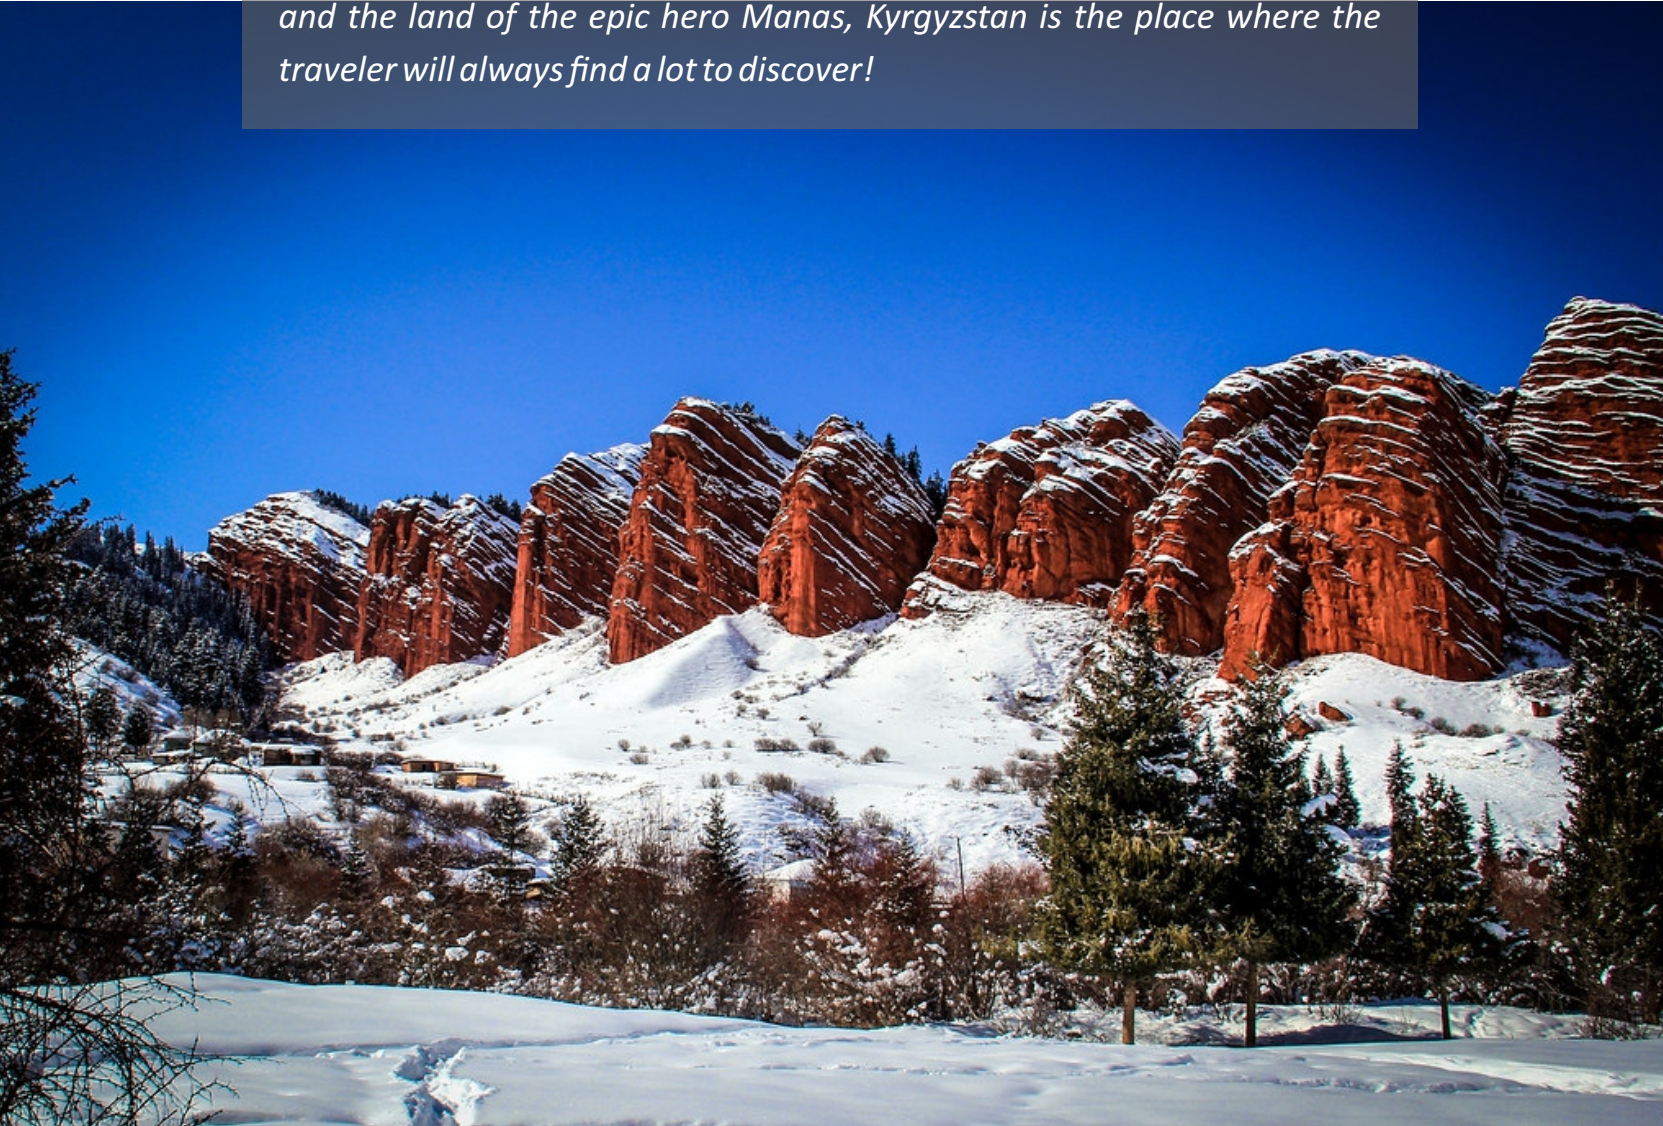

Its Wild and Its yours

Kyrgyzstan

Kyrgyzstan is outstanding to drive in during the summer months, but it becomes exceptional in the winters. Dotted with lofty peaks of the Tian Shan mountains all around, this country offers a fantastic snowy 4x4 offroading experience that is unparalleled. The cradle of nomadic culture and the land of the epic hero Manas, Kyrgyzstan is the place where the traveler will always find a lot to discover!

Bishkek

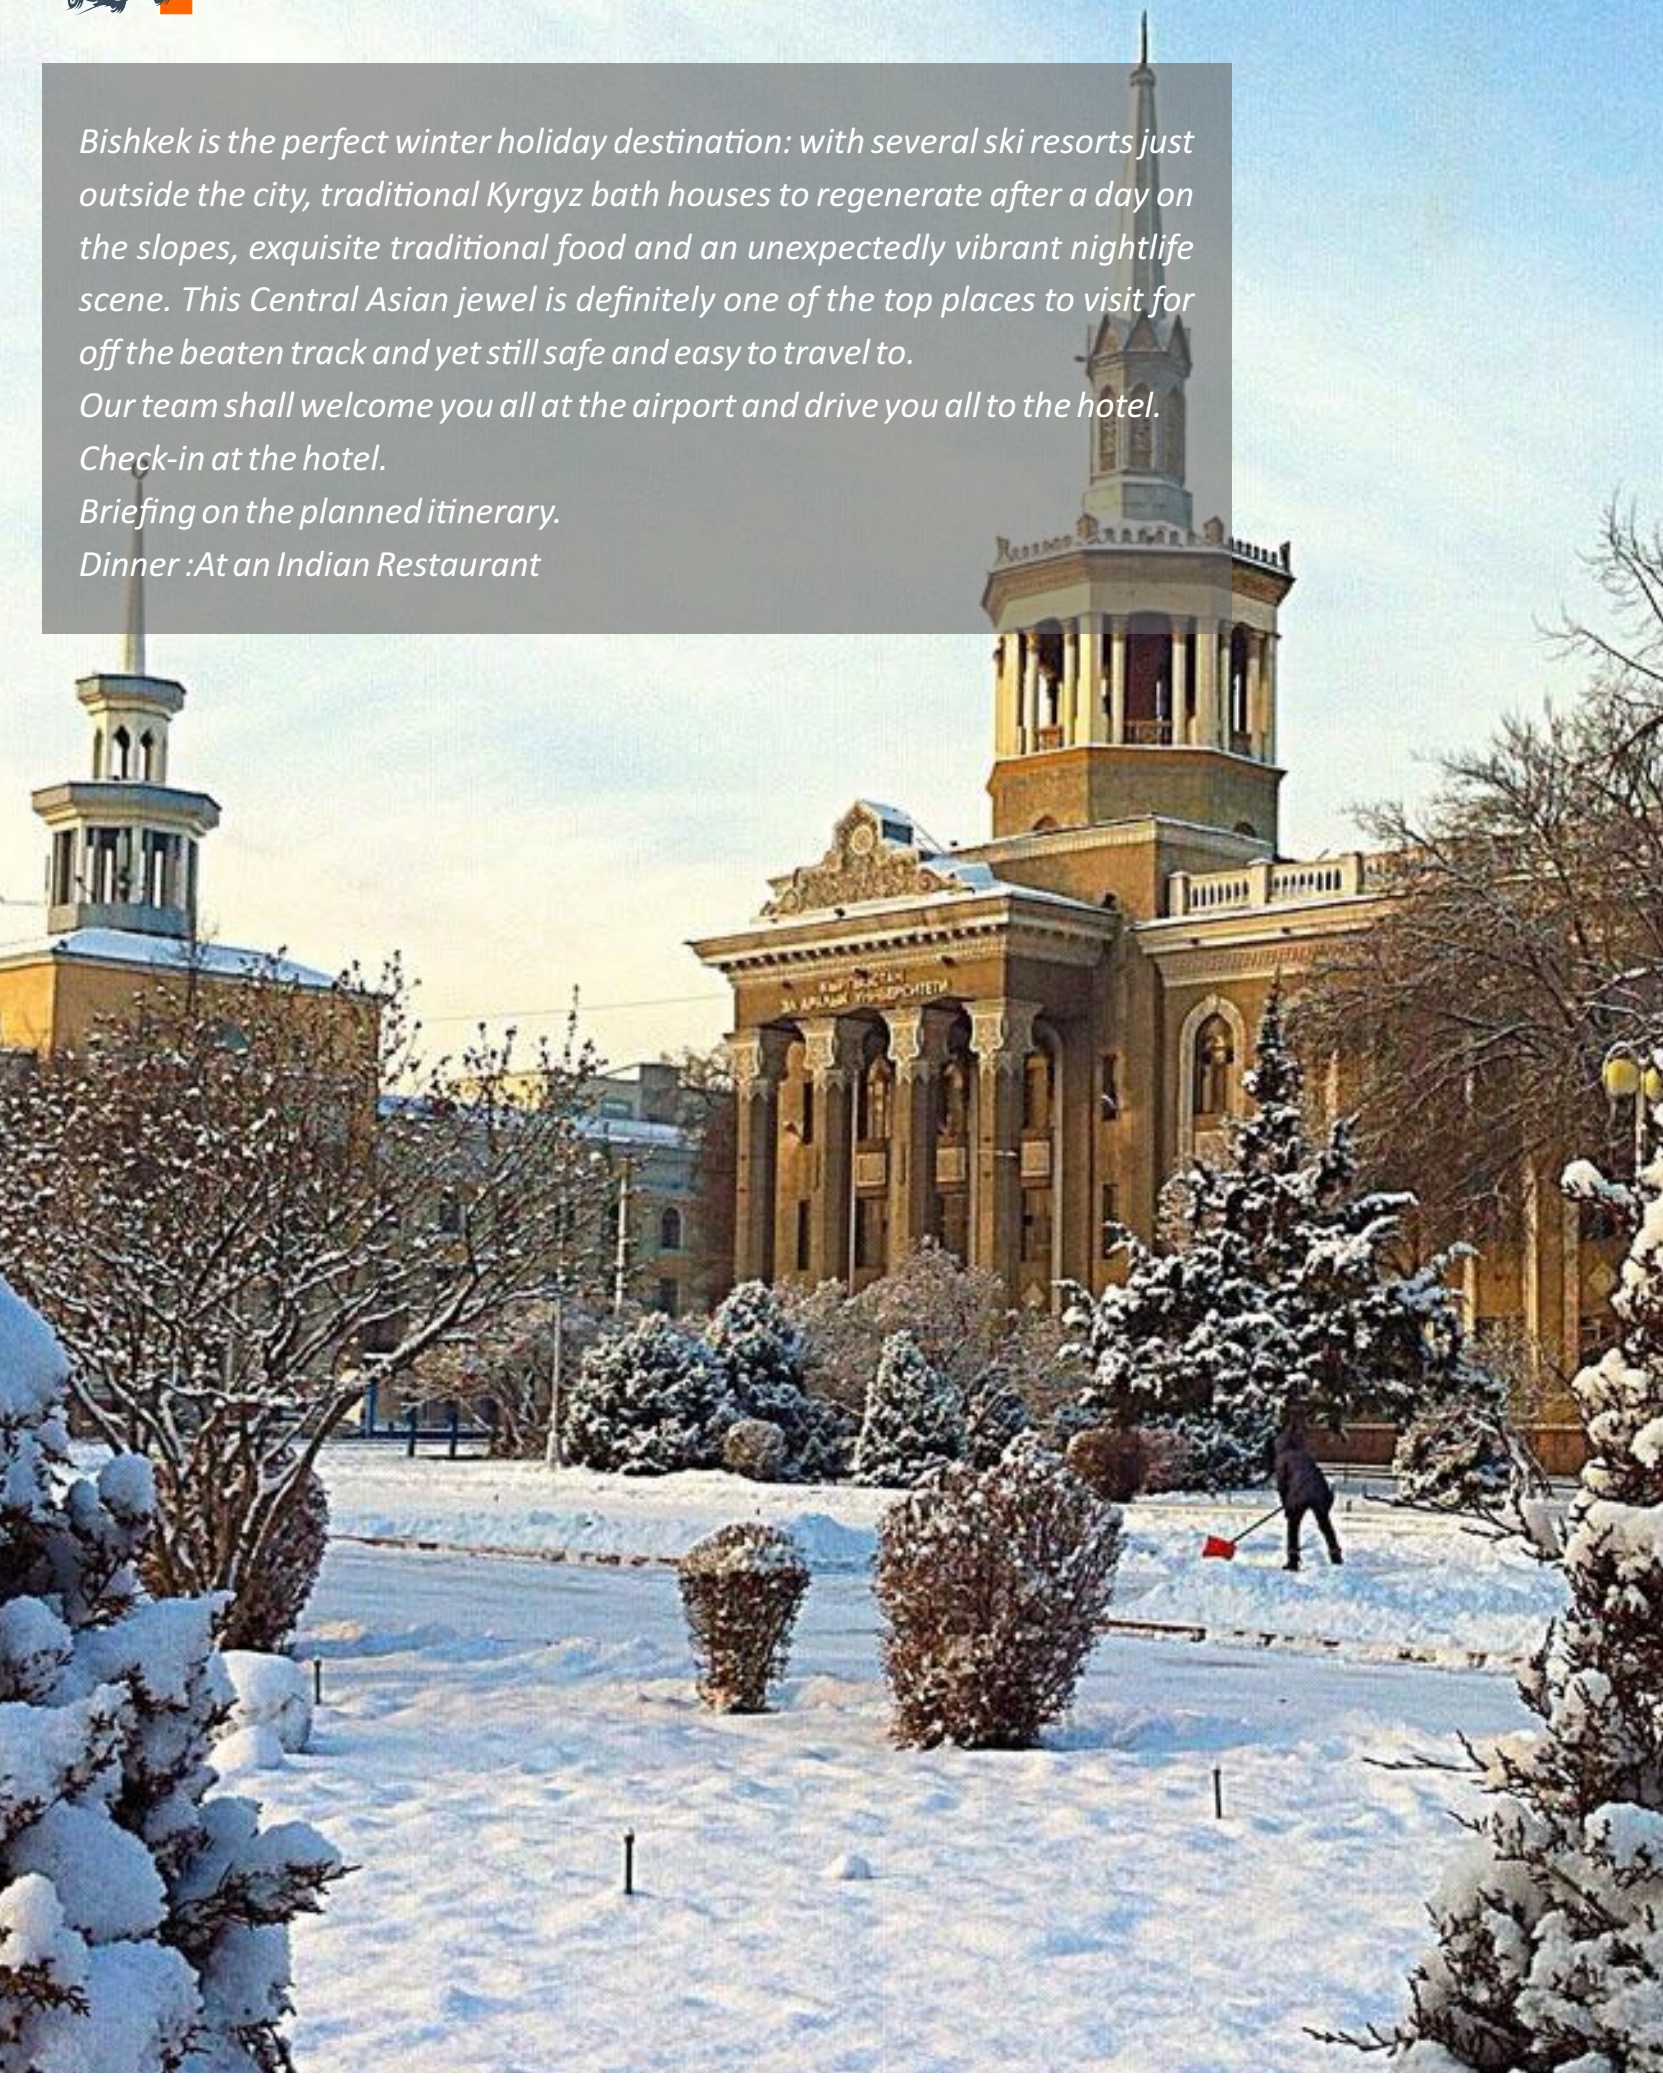

Bishkek is the perfect winter holiday destination: with several ski resorts just outside the city, traditional Kyrgyz bath houses to regenerate after a day on the slopes, exquisite traditional food and an unexpectedly vibrant nightlife scene. This Central Asian jewel is definitely one of the top places to visit for off the beaten track and yet still safe and easy to travel to.

Our team shall welcome you all at the airport and drive you all to the hotel.

Check-in at the hotel.

Briefing on the planned itinerary.

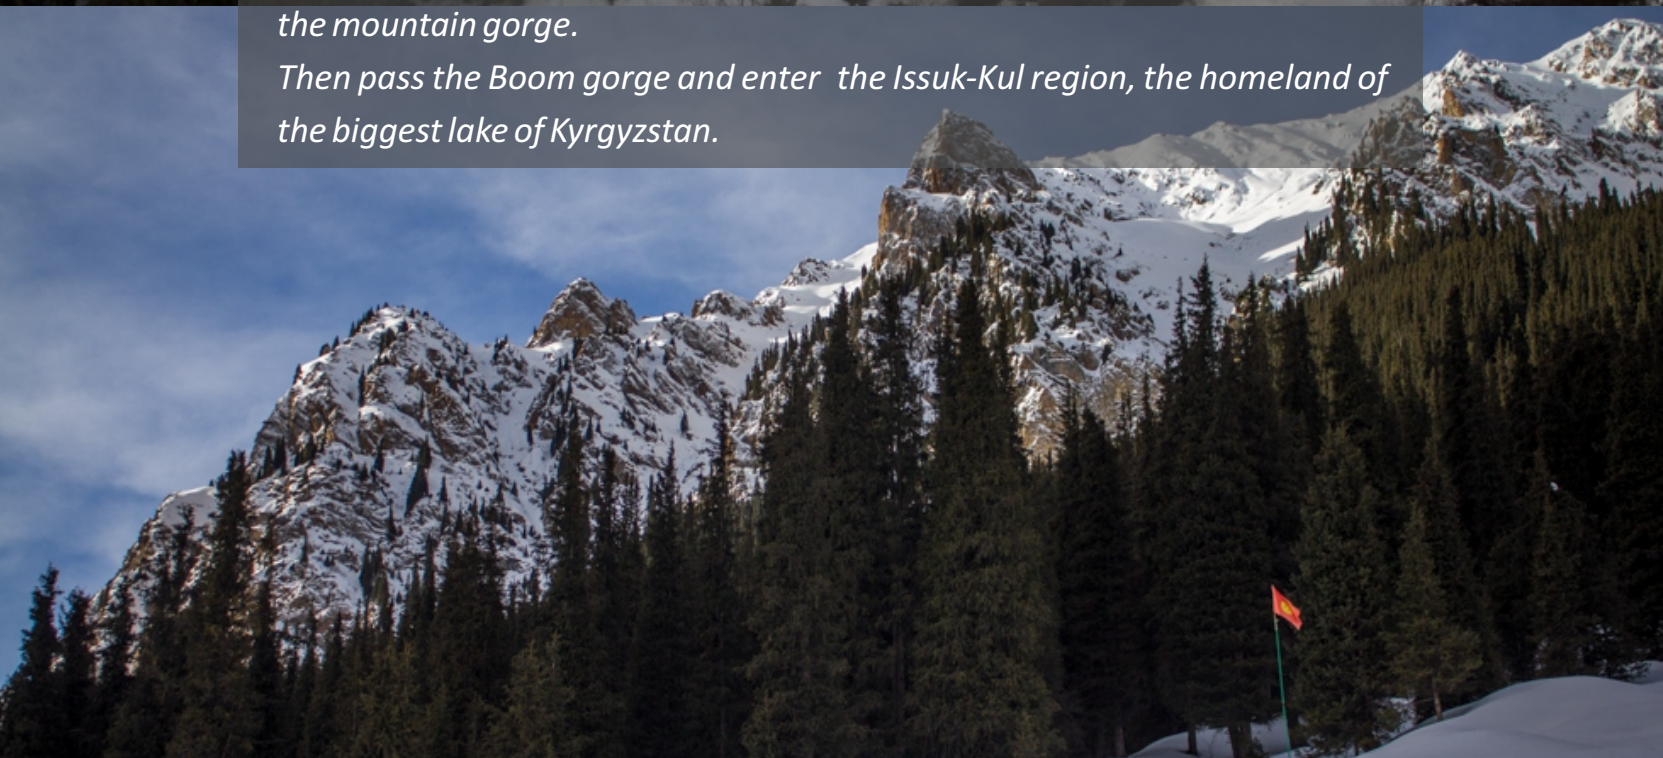

Dinner :At an Indian Restaurant

Our journey starts from the highway to the snowy roads of Chon Kemin. Chon Kemin is one of the biggest valley in Kyrgyzstan. We will drive through the mountain gorge.

Then pass the Boom gorge and enter the Issuk-Kul region, the homeland of the biggest lake of Kyrgyzstan.

3

Grigoriev Gorge-Cholpon Ata

Hike in the Grigoriev and Semionov gorge.

They are located on the northern shore of Issyk-Kul Lake, 60 kilometers from Cholpon-Ata.

This place is considered as the most famous attractions in Issyk-Kul. Pine trees and green hillsides cover the mountains. The middle part of the valley is crowned with two snowy peaks: the peak of Kum-Bel (4200 m) and Eshenbulak peak (4647m).

Stay at the Resort Hotel situated at the shore of the lake and enjoy the fascinating view of the lake with the gorgeous mountains behind.

Optional: Russian bath "banya"

Karakol

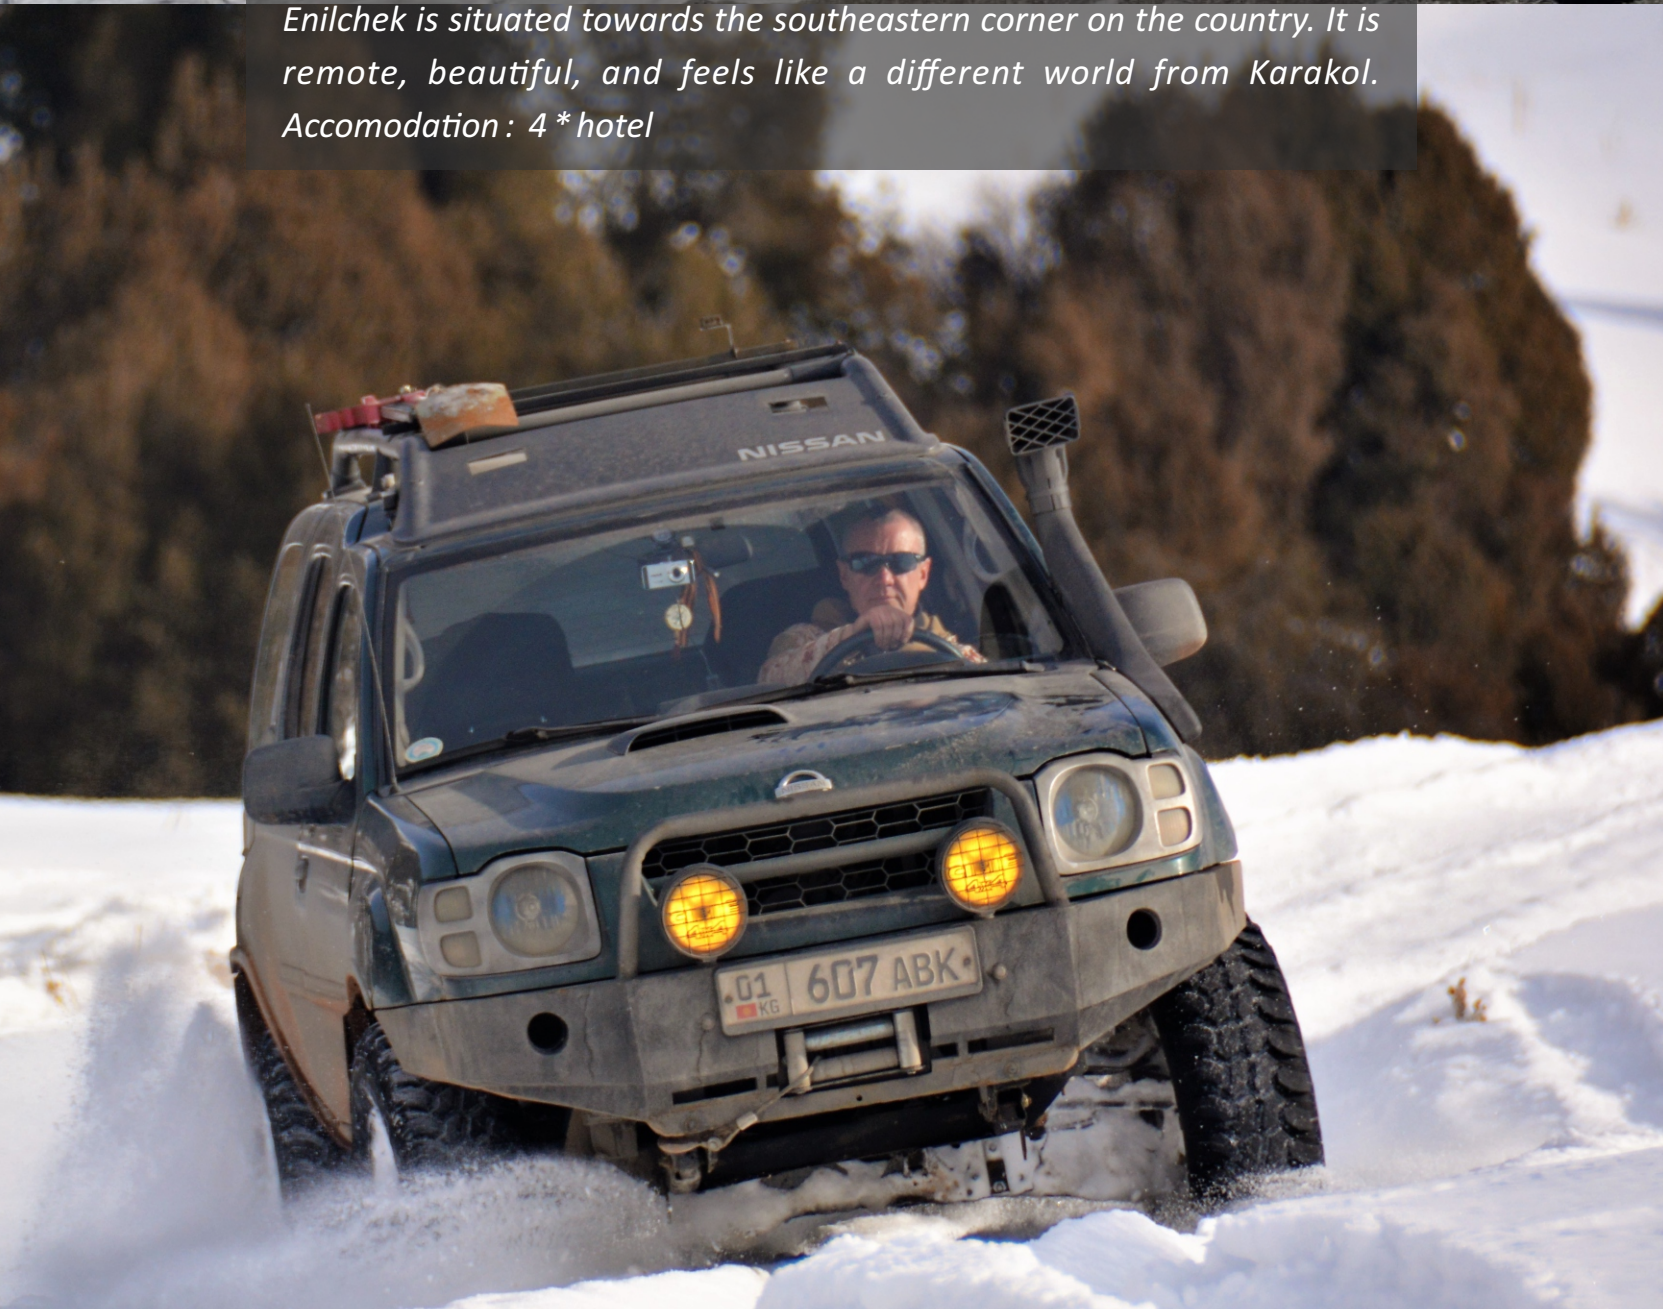

Drive down to the famous Karakol ski resort. It is located at an altitude of 3040 meters above sea level on the slopes of the Tien Shan mountains. This is the highest ski resort in Central Asia. During USSR it used to be training base for olympic sportsmen. On the way we will drive through the unpaved roads covered with snow.

*We drive to the remote area Enilchek through the high mountain passes. Enilchek is situated towards the southeastern corner on the country. It is remote, beautiful, and feels like a different world from Karakol. Accomodation : 4 * hotel*

Karakol-Barskoon-skazka-Kochkor

After breakfast and check-out, Drive to Barskoon Gorge with impressive nature, and mountain highway turning to the height of 4 000 m. At the end of the road, there is a waterfall called Tears of Snow Leopard. After the Gorge, we visit the historical Skazka canyons, which the place is like a wonderful Fairytale scene.

*Drive back to Bishkek.
Bishkek is much more than just a gateway point to some ski resorts and a few nightclubs. Experience the old Soviet past. Ala-Too Square is the perfect example for that. A massive square surrounded by concrete blocks – Lenin’s dream.
The road to Bishkek passes through the Boom gorge.*
